

ALEXANDRIA.

MONDAY EVENING, APRIL 8.

In the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, on Saturday, Judge Wylie delivered his opinion in the long contested case of Greenbury M. Watkins vs. Lewis Smackum. The suit was to recover the custody of two colored boys, Robert and Edward Wilkins, who had been formerly bound apprentices to the plaintiff, and who were, as claimed, illegally detained by the defendant. Judge W.'s opinion was in favor of the plaintiff. In this case the court were equally divided, Judges Wylie and Olin being in favor of affirming the judgment ruled by Judge Wylie below, and Chief Justice Cartter and Fisher for reversing. The Washington Chronicle is very indignant at Judge Wylie's decision; declares that "he shows himself entirely ignorant of the; law" and says that the result of the matter is a new way of "reviving and carrying out the defunct fugitive slave law.' We do not know that Judge Wylie will feel any way "discomposed" at the tirades of the Chronicle, on a question of law, at least.

Bishop Whittingham's circular to the Episcopal Clergymen, on the "Sunday Car question," in Baltimore, was, the Sun says, "read from all the pulpits of that denomination in Baltimore, yesterday. In some, the ministers made remarks on the subject, but in other cases the letter was simply read, as requested by the Bishop.' In a few instances the pastors indicated that they read the letter but in obedience to suggestion, and in one case the minister said, that looking upon the question as one altogether political, he would much rather see the cars run on Sunday, than have politics introduced into the church."

The New York Herald advises the South to send a large proportion of colored men to Congress, as the most effectual means of breaking down the Radical party, and argues that plenty of this race can be found fully compe tent to cope with the Morriseys and the Ben. Butlers of that body. The Herald also advises the colored people to organize on the Presidential ticket of Grant for President and Lee for vice President. The Herald is "great upon" "advice."

Senator Wilson concluded his speech in Petersburg, by telling his audience that "he had said what he thought as freely as if he had said it at his own door." This does not look much like the insults and "terror" which the Northern radicals assert are exhibited at the South, whenever a Northern man expresses his opinions. Senator W.'s speech is spoken of respectfully by the Richmond and Petersburg | place."

There are said to be sixteen caudidates for commissioner of agriculture, including Mr Newton, who seeks to be retained in the office The President deems it proper to give to the West the commissioner, and it is reported that he will nominate Col. Capron, of Illinois .-There will be another nomination for minister to Austria.

It is understood that the Senate will reconsider the appointment of Gen. Rosseau. One Senator opposed to him voted with the ma jority for the purpose of being enabled to move a reconsideration. In case he is finally rejected, it is probable that either Gen. Sickles or Gen. Robinson will receive the appointment.

It is now said that there is a better prospect than there was a week ago, of the ratification of the Russian treaty. "Manifest Destiny" will probably urge on the "expansion" until the "whole boundless continent is ours."

The Richmond Enquirer positively contradiets all the current reports in relation to Gen. Lee's opinions on the recent reconstruction legislation, and says that no one is authorized to declare his views either pro or con.

Senator Wilson is to return to Virginia, to speak at different points. "He expresses himself pleased with the situation of affairs." It must be vastly consoling that he is "pleased with the situation of affairs !"

The recent Sunday Sunday School Convention, held at Charlottesville, adopted a resolution in favor of establishing Sunday Schools for the colored people in the county of Albe-

It is said that Mr. Sumner has left Washington for New York, to sail from the latter place in the next steamer for a trip to Europe.

A public meeting was recently held at San Francisco for aid to the destitute in the South, and $11,000 immediately subscribed.

THE MURDER TRIAL. - The Circuit Court Judge Thomas presiding, occupied three days in the trial of John Butler, and John Johnson, charged with the murder of Henry Clay Lee. The cases were severed. In that of John Butler the jury returned a verdict sentencing him to imprisonment in the Penitentiary for fourteen years. This we consider a mild punishment under the law, if Butler was guilty of the murder of Lee. It he was not guilty | Governor's approval to become laws. in the opinion of the jury, then he should have been acquitted. It was a secret murder, so confessed by all, and the only question was, who was the perpetrator. There was no tittle of evidence which could by possibility determine any degree of crime below that of murder in the first degree. John Johnson was acquitted without the jury leaving the box, and was discharged by the judge with good, wholesome counsel upon the danger of being found in bad company, and advised to "go in peace, and sin no more."—Warrenton Index.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

'To show the very age and body of the times. Among the frauds recently discovered by the treasury agents, is that of a collector of inter nal revenue who has been detected in efforts to secrete the government funds and deposit them to his own personal account in various banks of various cities. The amount recovered already is over $200,000, which was found deposited in ranks in New Orleans, Memphis, etc. He cleared out from his district, and endeavored to withdraw the funds, but the treasury agents were ahead of him with dispatches, and, with the aid of the military, he was arrested in Texas a few days ago. The commissioner of internal revenue has decided that banks are not to deduct from their profits the amount of the tax paid the State and municipal authorities on the shares of the stockholders, but are required to include that amount in estimating the tax on their dividends and added surplus. It is proper that stockholders should be apprized of this decision that they may include their proportion of the amount thus paid by the banks for them in their estimate of the deduction to which they are entitled in making their statement of taxable income.

Some weeks since an account of the blowing up of Table Rock by the Canadian authorities, was published, the object being to prevent any accidents from future falls of rock. A hole was drilled and a charge of powder placed in it, but it seems the usual packing was omitted or badly arranged. The natural consequence is, that though the powder burned very prettily, Table Rock still stands unharmed. A few pieces only were detached and fell.

A short time since Postmaster Gilmore mentioned to a member of the Young Men's Christian Association of Chicago, that a great number of letters were sent to the Dead Letter Office every month because the writers forgot to stamp them. An idea was suggested, and now "the Association affixes the stamps to these otherwise dead letters, and sends them on their way to rejoice the hearts of the writers and receivers." (!)

Kendall and Rainforth, the two life insurance swindlers, were tried at Chicago, on Tuesday, for contempt of Court, they having refused to give evidence. Kendall was sentenced to four months imprisonment, and Rainforth until the 22d of next February, that being the anniversary of the day on which he was supposed to have died. Kendall, while before the Court, made a full confession of the attempt to swindle.

It is announced that a manufacturer at Ballston Spa, New York, has invented an arrangement for lighting his factory with kerosene oil, conveyed from a reservoir in the upper story by means of gas pipes to all portions of his mill. He does away with cumbrous lamps, easily broken and liable to explosion. It is claimed that the burners are always ready like gas, and do not leak. It has already been announced that Mrs. Frances Lord Bond has been appointed by the U. S. Government consul at a British seaport. The Pall Mall Gazette remarks upon the appointment that "a lady in an eminently interesting condition or a nursing mother, required to deal vigorously with a mutinous crew, would be scarcely the right woman in the right

At a meeting of the Conservative Union County Convention, held in Chattanooga, Tennessee, on Saturday night last, delegates were elected to seats without distinction of race or color. There were some 500 colored men and 300 whites present at the meeting.

General Sickles has prohibited the branding of a certain Nicholas Carr, convicted of manslaughter at Wilmington, North Carolina, on the ground that the case comes within the provisions of the law of Congress against maining. Additional advices have been received in St.

The New Orleans Picayune of the 28th says: "We have been eating ripe plums, taken from trees in the open air in our gardens, for over two months, and are just gathering from the trees the last of our oranges of the old crop, and are just passing out of bloom for another. JUDGE THOMAS. - We only heard the concluding sentences of Judge Thomas's charge to the grand jury of Fauquier county on Tuesday, and heard that rather indistinctly. But we heard enough to elicit our admiration of the The present Legislature of New York would spirit which prompted his words. Whilst he could not congratulate the jury upon our present relations to the Federal Government and saw but little to inspire hope for the fuexpression of his desire, that in their deliberations, as full, fair and ample justice should be meted out to the colored freedmen as to the whites, and that nothing should be done that would unnecessarily bring us in antagonism to "the powers that be."

From all that we can learn, Judge Thomas has given universal satisfaction since his appointment to this circuit. He is a gentleman of urbs me manners, a sound lawyer, a clear in that istate, on Friday night last.

THE CLOVER HILL EXPLOSION.—A list has been furnished by the Secretary and Treasurer QPRINGTRADE. of the Clover Hill company, giving the names of all who perished by the recent terrible explosion at the Clover Hill pits, in Chesterfield. Among them are a number of old English miners, who had been employed there for years, and brought with them to Virginia the skill which characterizes the same class in their country. The colored men, who had been less, and Mazor alone four and three-eighth slaves, had generally assumed the surnames of their former masters. Thirty whites and of every kind and description, comprising a thirty-nine colored men lost their lives by the explosion.

Yesterday morning at 8 o'clock, the President, directors and other officers of the company, accompanied by the representatives of the Richmond Press, left the Petersburg depot in an extra train, and reached the pits in about an hour and a half, from the hour of departure. After examining the scene of the explosion and hearing the opinions of Mr. Cox and others who have been indefatigable in their efforts, since the explosion, to subdue the fire, they came to the conclusion that it cannot pos sibly be extinguished from present indications under three weeks.

The Board then held a meeting. The President, Mr. William H. Macfarland, of this city, took the chair, and Mr. D. S. Wolldrige acted as Secretary. Mr. Cox made a satisfactory report of some length, containing substan tially the facts given in his letter we published yesterday morning. A donation of $1,000 was voted the families of the deceased; resolutions of thanks to the Midlothian Company which had kindly tendered labor and mining apparatus, and to others who had given all the aid in their power to the company in its mis fortune, were also unanimously adopted. The deceased white miners leave seventeen widows and fifty-eight children, and some of those who were single, dependent mothers and sisters, all of whom are in a destitute condi

The colored men, we presume, left even a larger number of widows and children, but we were unable to ascertain anything definite in regard to them.-Richmond Whig.

RUSSIAN AMERICA.-The Toronto Leader, in an article on the Russo-American treaty, Hardly any event could be more unexpected than that of which the telegraph brings us intelligence from Washington. Russian Amerca, with its fifteen hundred miles of sea-coast on the Pacific and Behring's Straits, has been ceded to the United States.

It is quite possible that the world will not get at the bottom of this Russo-American agreement all at once. The treaty of cession has been laid before the Senate, but is that the whole story? Is there no secret agreement behind it? No understanding of the part the United States is to play in the event of England going to war with Russia, about the Eastern question, literally, so far as England is concerned, for the preservation of the Indian Rumors to this effect found currency some six months ago, and it is not at all improbable that they were not wholly unlounded. may have sought the alliance of the United States, and the latter exacted as a condition, the cession of Russian America, the agreement being that the cession should be announced and the rest of the bargain kept secret. Time will reveal the truth; but in the meantime suspicion points in this direction.

A "RESPECTABLE" LAW-BREAKER.-Wm. D. Simonds, who was arrested on Thursday last by Detectives Miller and Coomes, on the charge of being a boarding-house thief, turns out to be an individual of sufficient importance and influence to enlist the sympathies and services of some distinguished gentlemen here .-He is said to be a man of good family and respectable parentage, and has been a welcome visitor in the houses and at the social gatherings of members of Congress and others. He repaid their kindness, it is alleged, by taking for his own use articles belonging to his hosts. On one occasion he escorted the wife of a distinguished member of Congress to the theatre, and afterwards stole from her a handsome velvet cloak, which he pawned. The cloak was within a day or two found at the pawnbrokers. The fellow having been committed to jail by Justice Walter to answer the charge of largeny, efforts are being made to secure his release, the excuse offered being the respectability of his family. It is hard to conceive why a thief should go unpunished on account of his "respectability," while perhaps the man in tatters who steals a piece of bread to prevent starvation is compelled to undergo the punishment resulting from crime. - Nat. Int.

THE GARDENING BUSINESS NEAR NORFOLK. The season will be fully two weeks behind the last, but we are not prepared to say that this is so very material, since the season was rather too early last year. In other words radishes were gathered here and shipped North by the 10th of April, and when they reached the Northern market it was so cold they went off

And this early shipment of radishes last season, reminds us of a fact which comes to us from an undoubted source. A gentleman living near this city raised about $1,500 worth of radishes on two acres of land. The radishes were gathered and sold by the 10th of May, and then a different crop was put in, and before the Fall set in this two acres had yielded $2. 000.—Norfoll: Day Book.

SENSATIONAL .- We find the following in the New York Times: Mr. Tilman Gregory, a very wealthy planter residing near Augusta. Arkansas, fell into an altercation over a game of cards with a Dr. Dameron, in the course of which the latter drew a pistol and shot the former in the hip. Mr. Gregory being in liquor, taunted him for not shooting better than that. Mr. Dameron, who was also intoxicated, fired again, shooting him this time in the breast. Mr. Gregory placed his hand upon his pistol, and taking deliberate aim at the Doctor, shot him through the heart. Gregory's shot took effect almost instantaneously in Dameron's heart, and both fell dead together.

MASONIC. -At the meeting in Baltimore on the 26th and 27th ultimo, the Grand R. A. Chapter of Maryland and District of Columbia voted to separate by a nearly unanimous vote. In accordance with this action, the convention of the R. A. Chapters in the District of Columbia met in Washington at Masonie Hall Saturday evening, and formed a Grand Chapter for the District of Columbia similar to that organized in 1824. The constitution of the Grand Chapter of New York was adopted, with only the slight alterations necessary to make it conform to that jurisdiction.

It will force the beard to grow upon the smoothest face in from five to eight weeks, or hair upon ba d heads in from two to three months A few ignorant practitioners have asserted that there is nothing that will force or hasten the growth of the hair or beard. Their assertions are false, as thousands of living witnesses (from their own experience) can bear witness. But many will say, how are we to distinguish the genuine from the spurious? It certa nly is difficult, as nine-tenths of the different preparations advertised for the hair and beard are entirely worthless, and you may have already thrown away large amounts in their purchase.
